THE
MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION
OF AMERICA.

Proceedings at New York, December 29, 30, 1884.

BALTIMORE:
1885.

NOTE.

The Modern Language Association purposes to publish from time to time, independently of the Annual Proceedings of the Society, and in the form of a series of papers that shall be known as "The Modern Language Series," such matter as may, in the judgment of the Executive Council, serve to call attention to the aims of the Association. No. I of this series, "A Plea for a Liberal Education," by Prof. James King Newton, of Oberlin College, has already appeared. No. II, "The Preparatory Schools and the Modern Language Equivalent for the Greek," by Prof. Charles E. Fay, of Tufts College, is now in press. Every member of the Association is entitled to one copy of each number of this publication, and also to one copy of the Society's Proceedings. Additional copies are supplied, at five cents, each, for the former and one dollar for the latter, by the Secretary of the Association.
